

Dear participants,

Thank you for registering for our fifth New Planning dialogue and the first online session Directing City Visions on 8th May 2020 (Friday), 13:00 hours (CET).

This edition we look at the city scale, vision making and the growing relevance to include more stakeholders in the process leading to decisions on implementation. We look forward to an active and insightful dialogue. In this online version the dialogue the session will take two different formats, as a whole group and in virtual breakout rooms. - We urge you to not crowd the chat box with personal discussions. If you want to send a personal message to an attendee, you can do so by clicking on "Everyone" and select the person you want to send a message to.
- Since we cannot meet in person we would like to attendees to get in contact with each other. Therefore we ask your permission to share your e-mail with the fellow participants. Please let us know if you would rather only share your name.
- Bring your own drinks and snack. The event will be for 2,5 hours (13.00 – 15.30) and there will be a short break at 15.00 hours. Also at 15:30, we will end with an optional "breakout borrel" in small groups to share your thoughts with other participants.
